

Coming Together Through Quilting

“There are many good people around the world who do great things simply to help the community, When these great things are done with their sewing machine, it is exciting.” Janome Corporation states.

Janome further explains - “The story of the Southern New Mexico Festival of Quilts, sponsored by First National Bank of Alamogordo is heart-warming!

Pam Holland, globally recognized quilter from Australia, has been visiting a friend and fellow quilter in the Alamogordo area for many years. In 2009 Pam was introduced to the community through a “Lunch and Learn” event sponsored by First National Bank. Not unexpectedly, Pam was a hit with local quilters and artists and the lecture was presented to a standing room only crowd. Pam did not want to just stop there. She was determined to find a way to use sewing to reach out and help this wonderful community. To make a long story short, an idea came about to try and put on a quilting event with proceeds that would benefit area youth.”

“Pam has made a wonderful impact on this community and its youth programs. Beyond the dollar amount raised, Pam managed to bring together an entire community through their love of quilting.”

“A dream became reality with the help of a true professional and charitable person,
Pam Holland.”

“When a community comes together,...
...great things can happen.”
